2nd Warner suit payment plan sought

A proposal to pay about $42,000 annually on a judgement against the City of Bay St. Louis, has received objection by attorneys for the late Jimmy Ray Warner, II, who claim that the debt, now swollen to $442,500 due to interest, would take 30 years to pay off.

U.S. District Judge Harold Cox on Tuesday of this week, asked the same attorneys to submit a payment proposal to the court within a week for its consideration.

The city filed for an adjustment of its debts in federal court last August after failing in a series of efforts to have the judgement denied.

Mayor Larry Bennet of Bay St. Louis earlier stated he did not see how the city could pay the judgement, which he termed "highly unreasonable," without a substantial tax hike.

Warner, who has subsequently died, was paralyzed from the neck down as the result of injuries received while diving from an unfinished municipal pier over the July 4 holiday weekend in (SUIT PAYMENT - Page 6A)

Waveland mayor promises new stray animal shelter

by EDGAR PEREZ

The Waveland Board of Aldermen this week authorized Mayor John Longo Jr. to proceed with construction of a new city dog kennel and acquisition of a full-time small animal warden.

Longo raised the kennel question at the council's Tuesday night meeting, noting, "This city's growing and the animal problem is growing and I'm ready to alleviate this dog pound situation now."

Longo said the complaints against conditions at the present dog pound have continued to increase, including those voiced through letters to the editor of the Echo.

"As soon as construction is completed on the city's water well, I will begin work on the new dog kennel," the mayor reported.

He estimated work on the well would

INSPECTING LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE mainline through Hancock County following two, major derailments in 1976, are Mrs. Mary Callier of Clermont Harbor and Beat One civic associations, and Ernest Reeves, Jr., Southern District Inspector, Mississippi Public Service Commission. Mrs. Callier recently delivered petition containing 200 plus signatures from her area calling for track review and for a reduction in train speeds, to the supervisors, and contacted Congressman Trent Lott in Washington calling for action on the problem. be finished "within 90 days."

With the council's authorization this week, the mayor will have some $3,000 at his disposal for construction of the kennel and pens on city property off Gulfside Drive.

The new facility will be on the site of the city's new 24-hour manned fire station, as well as the sewerage treatment plant and water tower and well.

"That way there will always be somebody around to look after the dogs," the mayor said.

Longo said the new kennel "will be no hotel," but will include indoor housing and chain-link fencing around a concrete slab "that can be hosed off and kept clean."

He noted the new kennel will have neither heat nor cooling.

"There won't be any heat pumps or air conditioning," Longo stated.

Recent complaints against the city's current pound included lack of food or water, filthy conditions, failure to bury or dispose of dead animals and "a questioning of the value received for a $200-per-month part-time animal warden."

Also Tuesday, the council authorized City Attorney Lucien Gex to draw up a resolution expressing "concern for the welfare and safety of the people" along Louisville and Nashville Railroad tracks on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Longo said he will seek approval of the resolution of all city governments "from Moss Point to Waveland" through the Mississippi Municipal Association.

The mayor said copies of the resolution also would be sent to Ira L. (WAVELAND - Page 12A)

Legislators asked to seek local train speed limit law

Hancock County's state legislators, Senator Martin Smith, and Representative J.P. Compretta, are being contacted in Jackson by the board of supervisors, in an effort to have legislation introduced into the current term authorizing local authority to regulate train speeds on all tracks within their county.

The action came following the introduction, during the previous meeting, of petition signed by some 250 residents of Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore, calling for the slow down of trains through those areas.

The petitions are being forwarded by the supervisors to the Mississippi

Public Service Commission who have the authority to lower speed limits.

Mrs. Mary Callier of both the Beat One and Clermont Harbor Civic Associations, told supervisors she is in touch with Congressman Trent Lott's office in Washington concerning possible federal legislation, and also calling for a copy of the Federal Railroad Administration's findings on the Louisville and Nashville RR track state in Hancock.

The FRA's inspection train passed through the county last week as part of an inspection of mainline called for by the two municipalities.

Mrs. Callier had reported to supervisors, on behalf of her organizations, that residents of Clermont and Lakeshore are afraid of derailment caused by swaying trains travelling at what she termed "excessive speeds."

Mrs. Callier classed these speeds as being "well past 50 miles per hour."

She said people in her area are "just plain scared," particularly in view of the seemingly endless series of accidents occurring along the L&N tracks.

An additional request made of Congressman Lott by the Clermont Harbor group, is for a print out of the number of accidents and their causes that have occurred along the Mississippi Gulf Coast and its surrounds over the last year. Indication was given that more accidents have occurred than is generally known, particularly over the last few months.

Chamber sponsors

Easter morning

sunrise service

The annual ecumenical Easter Sunrise Service, sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, has been scheduled for 6 a.m. Easter Sunday morning, March 26, on the lawn of Christ Episcopal Church, South Beach Blvd., Bay St. Louis.

Attended last year by about 200 people, the event includes participation by ministers of various churches in the county, according to Robert Kane, chairman of the chamber's special events committee.

"We feel this annual event, with participation by various faiths, is a true community effort, and we urge all people of all churches in Hancock County to come together as one group on Easter Sunday morning," said Kane.

Musical selections will be provided, and coffee and doughnuts will be served following the service in Virginia Hall of Christ Episcopal Church.

RAILS AND ROADBED GET INSPECTION by unit of Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) following Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis citing tracks through his city as being in "deplorable" condition. Railroad agreed to effect any repairs requested by both Bennett, and Mayor John Longo, Jr., of Waveland, over last weekend. Copy of finding of FRA inspection has been requested from office of Congressman Trent Lott by Mrs. Mary Callier of both Beat One and Clermont Harbor Civic Associations, who this week petitioned supervisors to seek legislation calling for reduced speeds of trains travelling through rural areas of county. ## Fair committee to review Jaycee youth center score

More flack hit the Bay Jaycee youth center project Monday after the group met in separate sessions with the Hancock County supervisors and the fair association.

Banking away from their previous firing approach, the Jaycees challenged the supervisors as to the wisdom of the county having paid $100,000 for construction of a Youth Center to handle juvenile prosecutions in favor of a facility designed to prevent crime.

Ted Bilbo, Jaycee president, told the supervisors the Jaycees failed to understand how they failed to provide a program to stop trouble before it got started.

FRONT END LOADER IS NOSE DOWN IN BAYOU LA CROIX, early Monday morning, with tail on burned out bridge supports after major fire destroyed both. Believed act of sabotage, $20,000 piece of equipment is owned by Kelly Brothers Construction Co. of Waynesboro, who have roadway and platform contract for oil rigs in area. Located in Beat 2 on road between Highway 509 and US-90, bridge was rebuilt following Hurricane Camille and will take about $30,000 to replace. A second piece of Kelly equipment, a bulldozer, was sabotaged the same night. Bulldozer sustained approximately $20,000 worth of damage after being driven until it bogged down alongside road, dirt packed engine, and other equipment. Bridge was soaked in diesel oil before being set alight. Investigating officers from Hancock SO are: Len Woodson, Pullins, and Ronald Cuevas. Also investigating are Sheriff Naylor-Mitt, and State Fire Marshal Norman Dewett. (Staff photo - Ellis Cuevas)

Pearlington grows impatient with delay on new high school

by EDGAR PEREZ

The Hancock County School Board this week thwarted a move to call an immediate bond issue election for a new high school in the southern end of the county.

A motion seeking immediate action on the issue by Board Member Oris Ladner died for lack of a second at the board's Monday night meeting in Bay St. Louis.

The other four board members emphasized delay at this time is necessary until results are in on a State Department of Education feasibility study now being conducted for the board on the bond issue question.

"We don't need a study, we need a high school—that's all the proof we need," Oris Ladner said in urging the board to move ahead on the matter.

Ladner's motion followed the plea of a delegation of Pearlington citizens at the meeting for board action on the south-county high school.

"Two or three of you board members promised us your help on this matter if we would vote for you, but two or three years have passed now and nothing's been done," said Chandler Reynolds, spokesman for the Pearlington group.

"Our kids cannot participate in sports or other school activities because of the 60-mile roundtrip they have to make every day," Reynolds said.

"Our area will never grow unless you gentlemen are willing to speculate on a new high school," the Pearlington resident stated.

"A bond issue for a new high school would only mean about $20 a year in additional taxes for homeowners," Reynolds said, adding, "We all spend that much every week for junk."

Board Member Monvel Cuevas noted two recent school bond issues have failed to garner the necessary public support.

"Those bond issues failed by a small majority, so now we are trying with this feasibility study and other approaches to get ammunition to prove to the public that we can afford another high

Firehouse forms headquarters

Membership application valve opened in Kiln water district

By EDGAR PEREZ

The Kiln Fire and Water Protection District this week will begin accepting applications from homeowners for membership in the district at the new Kiln fire station from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays.

Cleveland Wyatt, president of the district's board of commissioners, said Vernon Haas will be on duty all day for the next four Saturdays at the fire house to sign new members.

In addition, Wyatt said Mr. and Mrs.

Dewey Hoda will begin this week making early evening house calls in the district to explain the obligations of membership as well as the benefits members can expect.

The Hodas will also be prepared to sign new members.

A homeowner is required to put up $25 meter deposit and sign an agreement to place his home on the new water system when it is completed in order to become a member of the district, Wyatt noted.

Some 125 homeowners of an estimated 416 in the district have already joined, the district president reported.

At least 350 homeowners must join to make the district eligible for a $500,000 loan and $310,000 grant from Farmers Home Administration.

Both the loan and grant to provide a community water system consisting of a 100,000 gallon, elevated tank, 200-gallon-per-minute well and about 40 (KILN W & FPD - Page 6A)

Horticulture, plant sale are council topics

The date for the horticulture show and plant sale was set for April 25 by Hancock County Extension Homemakers Council at its March 2 meeting.

Mrs. Helen Fahlman was appointed to serve as show chairman and Mrs. Gladys Discon, sale chairman, for the event which will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. in extension auditorium, Necaise Avenue.

Mrs. Ethel Breaux, council president, conducted the business session when it was announced the date of the next meeting had been changed from April 6 to April 4 when a flower arranging workshop will be conducted by John Davis, area extension horticulturist.

The Crafty Extension Homemakers Club hosted the social hour.

Panama Canal treaty offer gets DAR 'No'

By MRS. JAMES Q. COKER

The Mississippi Society Daughters of the American Revolution held their 72nd annual State Conference, Feb. 28 to March 2 at the Downtown Holiday Inn, Jackson.

Attending from Gulf Coast Chapter were: Mrs. Fred Sinquefeld, regent; Mrs. James Q. Coker, vice regent; Mrs. Nolan Barrios, recording secretary; Mrs. Dalton Shourds, registrar; Mrs. Roy Jones, state chairman for Americanism and DAR Manual for Citizenship; Mrs. Harold Noll, Car senior president.

A record crowd was on hand for the National Defense Luncheon to hear noted speaker, Mrs. Phillis Schlafly, NSDAR National Defense Chairman. Mrs. Schlafly spoke against ratification of the Panama Canal treaty and extending the ERA time limit. Others attending the luncheon from Gulf Coast Chapter were: Ex Regent Mrs. Robert Bird; Historian, Mrs. James Young; American Heritage Chairman, Mrs. T. M. Dye.

Other noted guests were State Regents from Massachusetts, Mrs. Tiberio, and South Carolina, Mrs. Ellis. Visiting from the President General's Reception Room Staff, Mrs. Westernman.

The Mississippi Daughters were entertained by the Tamassee "DAR-ings" a clog dance group from the DAR school in South Carolina.

WWI Auxiliary's state president honored at fete

The Ladies Auxiliary, Veterans of World War I, last week honored the group's state president, Mrs. Genevieve Cole of Bay St. Louis, at a birthday luncheon in Pascagoula.

Pascagoula Auxiliary President, Myrtle Page presented gifts and a corsage to Mrs. Cole.

Assisting with table decorations was Mrs. Harlet Seay of Pascagoula. Hospital Chairman, Alice Dewitt presented Mrs. Cole with a large birthday cake.

Also welcoming the state president were Mayor Ben Briggs of Pascagoula, Albert Barrios and Jack Smith, directors of volunteer services at the Biloxi Veterans Administration Center; Mrs. Leola Jaycox, state guard, and Sam Dedman, department commander.

Mrs. Cole expressed her appreciation of the event, and noted her pride in the City of Bay St. Louis and the State of Mississippi. She said the people of Bay St. Louis have been very kind and hospitable to the city is "a great place to live."

Little Theatre puts out call for '78 volunteers

By MIKE CUEVAS

There was a national ad campaign slogan several years ago that has become a part of American conversation, and has now become the slogan for the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre. "Try it - you'll like it!"

Perhaps many residents are under the misconception that the Little Theatre is "too social." If "too social" means blisters hands, paint splattered pants, anxiety attacks, and a good cold soft drink after a hard days work, yes, the Little Theatre is "too social."

Sure, Little Theatre members "put on the dog" for opening night, but we all enjoy a chance to dress up. We really dress up fancier for our spoof on Hollywood's Oscar when we present our own Louie.

What we really do is gather together people who enjoy creating. The Little Theatre let's people have a place to fulfill their interior decoration urges, their desires to really be a carpenter instead of a doctor, or vent their ambitions to be a "star."

Maybe you're a little shy about jumping into the Little Theatre first. We don't mind people who wade in slowly. If you're accustomed to watching TV in your La-Z-Boy we cannot offer you that cushioned comfort, but we can offer the talents of our own "Lucy," "Maude," or "Odd Couple." We can even throw in a little "Police Story" or "Quincy."

This season we'll start you off light with a three act comedy called "Everybody's Girl," then change the pace with "The Lion in Winter." For a mystery play, that even the audience takes part in we'll present "The Night of January 16." For a rousing climax you can enjoy the comedy stage and movie hit, "A Shot in the Dark."

After being in the audience you may not be too scared or inhibited to be on stage, but if you are, there is always room back stage. For the immaculate housekeeper, we have lots of mess and plenty brooms; boxes of make-up for the budding make-up artist; or, to put you "almost there," we always need good curtain pullers.

"Try-it! You'll like it!" We sure do.

Fair group re-elects Breaux; gives horse show, AQHA dates

Louis J. Breaux of White Cypress, was re-elected president of the Hancock County Fair Association on Monday. The annual election was held in conjunction with their business meeting, both in their building at the fairgrounds.

The building had received the attention of vandals resulting in shattered entrance door glass, a state causing severe drafts to whip through the assembly.

Others elected were: Felix Famallor, first vice president; Pat Murphy, second vice president; Noreen Barnes, secretary (accepted by Mrs. Barnes only on the provision it was for a single term); Mrs. Ethel Breaux, treasurer.

The Hancock County Riding Club asked for and received permission to utilize the arena and supporting facilities, such as the concession booth, on April 8, June 3, and August 19, for their horse shows.

Rent for grounds was set at $50 per day, with an additional $50 to be charged for clean-up in the event the club failed to undertake the task.

The association re-established the $50 per day fee as standard, with the clean-up cost to be deposited prior to each event. This fee would be refunded if the hiring group handled the clean-up.

Other confirmed show dates were: May 5, American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA), at Diamondhead; May 6, AQHA, sponsored by Hancock Riding Club, at Hancock Fairgrounds; May 7, AQHA, sponsored by Picayune Riding Club, at Hancock Fairgrounds; June 17, 4-H horse show, Hancock Fairgrounds; Sept. 16, Hancock County

AQHA show; Hancock Fairgrounds; Sept. 17, Diamondhead AQHA, at Diamondhead.

The 1978 County Fair will be the week of September 18 through 23.

The printing of programs for circulation among schools, 4-H Clubs, Extension Homemakers Clubs, churches, and such, to enable them to begin preparations for this year's fair in September, was given approval at a cost not to exceed $340.

A request from the Bay St. Louis Jaycees to lease part of the fairground property for the purpose of constructing a youth center was sent to committee. Here the action is to determine the legality of such a move as all previous like requests have been turned aside due to the single-purpose lease held by the association on their lands.

A second committee was formed for the purpose of investigating various forms of local entertainment available to the association over fair week.

Thinking centered on the feasibility of inviting all churches, civic organizations, service clubs, and so forth, to open a booth for fair week, offering a variety of activities similar to church fairs.

Also, the committee is to ascertain the wisdom of holding an open-air stage show each night in the arena, talent, with a different show each night.

Hinged joints found, city to fix cave in

By ELLIS CUEVAS

At least one of the major street breaks caused by failing underground sewer lines is to be fixed by city crews, assisted by professional engineers - all as soon as weather permits.

This action was made possible, Mayor Larry Bennett told Bay City Council Tuesday, through his success in obtaining the required hinged joints, whose lack had previously prevented the problem being corrected.

Bennett said locating the hinged joints had proven troublesome but a source has been found.

A petition to now consider was presented by William Frisbie, attorney, representing Mrs. Ellarose S. Carden, concerning her original petition for change of assessment on the improvements of her property.

Frisbie first appeared before Council on Feb. 8, seeking a change of assessment for Mrs. Carden's family dwelling on N. Beach Blvd.

Council refused the request for assessment reduction at their next meeting and filed, through her attorney an appeal to Circuit court on Feb. 28.

According to Frisbie, the property is the highest single family assessment in the City of Bay St. Louis for the tax year 1977.

Frisbie requested that council consider adjusting his client's property in line with other property of equal value.

"The assessments of homes built or completely re-built in 1970 after Hurricane Camille do not show a higher assessment like my client's," Frisbie added.

Council all agreed that a new assessment of the entire city should be made, but it is estimated a cost of one half million dollars will be required for a complete job and Bay St. Louis doesn't have the money, James Thrifley, council president, allowed. Council agreed to table Mrs. Carden's request until their regular scheduled meeting.

Kelly McQueen, Bay St. Louis resident, appeared before council requesting help to install sewer lines to property upon which he wants to build on Bouslog St. McQueen stated that the Board of Health won't give him a permit for a septic tank. Sewerage is not available in front of the property he owns, the new sewer work stopping some 450 feet away.

Council told McQueen the prior three administrations did not live up to their part of the deal on services which were promised to residents of the newly annexed area for the last 10 years.

McQueen said he was willing to pay for the sewer-line but council would not go along with that because they are now having problems in other areas where previous additions had been made and no plans were made for additions and everything is in one big mess.

The new administration said they are trying to get a master plan for the city which would include sewer coverage for all the city. Councilman Fred Wagner stated that when sewer lines are put in, the city wanted to be sure that lines placed on the other end of these would work.

"We are with you 100 percent, Councilman Thrifley told McQueen. Pete Benvenuti said, "Anything we are going to do has to be a good job, we want to do it that it will be only quality work." Councilman Wilmer Seymour added, "I live in your area, I don't have sewerage, it is only 150 feet from my property, it is something the annexed area really needs."

In other action councilman Harry Farve made a motion to accept the lone bid from E. P. Exnicious on a 1978 Ford LTD in the amount of $6,028 for the police department to be paid by I.E.A. Vic Frankiewicz, co-ordinator, Mississippi Marine Resources Commission, spoke to council regarding Coastal Energy Impact Program (CEIP) and what it took to qualify for these funds.

Council resolved a problem plaguing them for sometime upon recommendation of Counsel Joseph Gex in setting a policy for the redemption of property that has matured in the city.

Gulfport patient load on climb

For the first time since the West Wing was added in 1973 the Admissions Department at Memorial Hospital at Gulfport has had to tell patients being admitted at times, "There are no private rooms." Percentage occupancy reached a record high since the addition of the West Wing with 76.8 percent occupancy in January, 1978. This figure is arrived at by totaling the daily number of patients (or percentage of rooms filled) and dividing by days in the particular month. A total of 945 in-patients were treated at Memorial Hospital at Gulfport in January.

The hospital had an average of 208.2 patients per day, (at times this total reached 256). Of twenty three bassinets in the nursery, an average of 21.1 newborns were in the nursery daily in January for a 91.6 percent occupancy. One hundred forty-seven (147) babies were delivered during the month compared to an average of 133 per month in 1977.

With so many patients in the hospital, ancillary services were busy - with 40,132 tests

January compared to an average of 329 for 76-77 fiscal year. The lab averaged 36,777 tests per month and Radiology 3,964 procedures per month for 1976-77. Emergency Department visits for January totalled 2,631 as compared to an average of 2,392 per month, last year.

Opinion/Jake Jacob

Reprint-The Sea Coast Echo, Thursday, August 19, 1976

We ask L&amp;N to again earn our county's confidence

We are quite prepared to believe that the sudden elimination of many of the apparent track inequities encountered in the Louisville and Nashville Railroad's mainline at the time of, and since, their back-to-back wrecks inside the municipal limits of Bay St. Louis is due to coincidence and the application of "routine maintenance."

By the same token, we acknowledge a complete lack of engineering qualifications either of a theoretical or practical nature, that will in any way permit us to claim "expertise" in matters relating to track safety designations.

Nor, by any stretch of the imagination, can we intend, or have we intended, to put stigma on those whose responsibilities include the maintenance of railway within the confines of this county.

Neither do we imply our possession of inborn senses or electronic mechanisms whereby we can accurately provide readout of the speed or stability of any mechanized vehicles passing us at right angles.

But, as ordinary citizens, we were, and are, able to witness freight trains traversing this area at speeds we consider excessive, and with a degree of rock or sway we consider exorbitant.

Too, we can view a track lacking shoes, spikes, nuts and bolts, spanning areas pregnant with broken and rotted ties, and possessing sections further defaced by the obvious scars of frequent wrecks, with considerable misgivings.

The railway authorities have informed us that trains in this county travel up to 50 miles per hour in the country and 30 miles per hour inside municipal city limits.

We are also aware that railway officials in general have long disputed municipal speed regulations, claiming such dealt with the activities of steam locomotives and therefore lack enforcement when it comes to diesel operations.

We noted the L&N's apparent agreement with the city ordinances concerning speeds within the incorporated areas of this county.

We hear the alarm being raised by those who live both inside and outside such municipalities concerning train speeds they estimate as being far and beyond those acknowledged by the railroad.

We see the speedometers on our personal vehicles when we have tracked trains on roads paralleling the tracks for reasonable distances, while acknowledging a partial rebirth of reasonable speed operations, particularly over the last few weeks.

And, in consequence, we now call the Louisville and Nashville Railroad's attention to the provisions of Section 3374-152, Mississippi Code of 1942, Recompiled, concerning the police powers of municipalities.

This statute provides that the governing authorities "...shall have the power and authority to regulate the crossings of railways...and to provide precautions and prescribe rules regulating the same...and to make any other and further provisions, rules and regulations to prevent accidents at crossings and on the tracks of railroads...."

We next call the attention of the L&N to an opinion of the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi concerning this legislation. This opinion was provided the city attorney of New Albany in April of 1967, and was carried under the signature of W. D. Coleman, assistant attorney general.

"When it is considered from a practical matter that the sole objective of municipal governing authorities in undertaking to regulate the speed of locomotives and trains operated within the municipal corporate limits is to prevent accidents at crossings and on the tracks of said railroads, it would appear that a municipality is empowered by the provisions of Section 3374-152, supra, to enact and enforce reasonable regulations thereunder and having specific reference to maximum speed at which the locomotive and trains may be operated within the municipality. It is a necessary inference from the provisions of Section 3374-152, supra, that in order to make rules and regulations to prevent accidents at crossings and on the tracks of railroads, the municipality must of necessity have the power to regulate speed at which the train is being operated, since speed most nearly always is an inseparable factor in view of the prevention of the causing of railroad accidents."

Let us repeat the last few lines of this opinion, "...to regulate speed at which the train is being operated, since speed most nearly always is an inseparable factor in view of the prevention or the causing of railroad accidents."

We are not too sure conceding the permitted extent of entry into such regulation by county government, but we do know that such municipal legislation exists.

Our police, we have been told, have received instructions to spot check all trains moving through the county to ascertain and verify their speed.

We laud the L&N in its track renovative efforts and trust they will carry them through to the promised extent.

We thank the Mississippi Public Service Commission for hearing our plea and sending representation to the scene.

We applaud the actions taken by our public officials to bring all this together.

But, may we suggest, that all does not sweep by-like dust under a carpet.

Should the track again appear to the average observer to be falling in the proper performance of its functions, we suggest a more prompt alert be issued to our PSC.

Should the trains fail to observe the speed limits, we suggest a reduction of those limits by successive five mile per hour drops, until the L&N gets the message.

We do not advocate the blocking of this town by crawling trains. Nor do we wish to see a return to the highballing freight whose apparent speeds in excess of the posted limit would make us all rich at one dollar apiece per mile an hour over.

All we have sought, and are seeking is the continued safe operation of an industry in which we all have a vital stake, and a restoration of the confidence of our county to that industry. We do not feel this is too much to ask.

Letters to the Editor

Tracks stated to be in good condition

Dear Editor,

The recent tragic derailments which claimed a number of lives have focused national and local attention on the condition of railroad tracks. While I am certain that the local citizens who passed judgment on the condition of our railroad tracks meant well (and I have every respect for their judgment in their own fields), it is my understanding that they did not have the knowledge of track foremen with which to qualify their opinions.

I am a railroad contractor, licensed by the State of Mississippi, and I also have a Certificate of Public Responsibility. My experience in track work dates back to May of 1944. Although the tracks are in far worse condition than they were at one time, I have not found them to be in deplorable condition. Not all derailments are caused by track conditions, but most of the time the blame is placed on it. Why rule out sabotage, either that of a sick crackpot, or of some radical political group?

The gentleman in charge of track maintenance throughout this area is Mr. Elvin A. (Buck) Asher, Roadmaster. He, like his father before him, is a loyal, dedicated, and knowledgeable track man. His railroad experience dates back to about 1940. Having been Mr. Asher's assistant at one time, I learned very much from him, and I know him well. There is no one more concerned with the health and welfare of the citizens of our community than he. If Mr. Asher would find his tracks in an unsafe condition, he would certainly repair them immediately. There have been times when Mr. Asher has spent many night hours dead on his feet from fatigue, and impervious to the weather, regardless of how cold or wet, to insure that tracks were safe for the passage of trains.

With the high cost of material, labor, taxes, and other overhead, railroads are having a tough time surviving, and maintenance is not cheap - would you be surprised to learn that just one single railroad cross-tie costs approximately $25 installed? And just think - railroad uses billions of cross ties.

Sincerely,
Claude S. Green

There is no wonder that you have "no comment" for the actual net profit - based on figures you published - is less than 4 1/2 percent. Do you operate on less?

I can't imagine many firms than can stay in business - and grow - with this low rate of return.

In my opinion editorials should at least try to present a case honestly and not disguise it.

"UNITED ENERGY Resources, Inc., of Houston, has reported unaudited consolidated net income of $74 million, or $6.28 per share, on revenues of $1.68 billion in 1977, compared with $52.8 million, or $4.58 a share, on revenues of $1.13 billion in 1976."

"United is the parent company of United Gas Pipeline Co. (the principal interstate natural gas supplier to this area) and other firms involved in energy-related activities. ## Energy price advocate

The Editor,
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir,

Twice you have published, on your editorial page, copies showing profits of United Energy Resources and of The Echo's Feb. 1978 issue indicating a 300 percent increase in utility bills. I almost wrote you after the first publication, but can no longer constrain myself after the second publication. This time you are trying to impress upon us with large sums of money and to make us believe there are excessive profits.

Editor,
Sea Coast Echo

I am grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moody for their letter on the Waveland Animal "Shelter" which appeared in last Sunday's Echo. After reading the letter I decided to see for myself if conditions were as awful as the Moody's had described. I found they were much worse - it was more like an animal death trap than an animal "shelter."

I saw a pile - maybe four or five - DEAD PUPPIES in our animal "shelter." The odor was revolting. The grass was waist high or higher.

I checked with city hall and they confirmed that we do indeed pay a dog catcher (part-time) $200 per month. (They then commented that $200 was nothing in this day and age. I wonder how many people would agree with that statement?) Both the dog catcher and the city maintenance crew share the responsibility of "shelter" upkeep.

If the state of that "shelter" is indicative of what Waveland taxpayers are receiving for $200 a month, then I suggest it is hardly worth it. Let's close that death trap and spend that $200 each month in bullets to shoot the strays. It certainly would be more humane.

$'s and the 3-R's

Dear Sir:

President Carter continues to believe in the theory that if you throw enough taxpayers money at a problem, it will either go away, or be solved, or at least make an attempt.

This past week, he sent to the Congress a bill which is the epitome of that syndrome: An education bill costing literally billions to teach "Johnny" the three "R's", reading, (w)riting, and (a)rithmetic.

It seems to me that is what the schools ought to be doing now, and if not, why not. Is it a case of the incompetents trying to teach the incompetents, or perhaps an admission that our schools are an abominable failure.

What perhaps may be needed, are more discipline, effort and incentives, and not more waste of the taxpayers money.

Cordially,

Jaycees...

"...we cannot see why you put the cart before the horse," Bilbo said.

The vigorous approach to the county government seemed to be sparked by it having previously endorsed a resolution calling for the center, if built, to be constructed in an alternate area of the county to that presently intended.

The supervisors had previously sided with residents in the Longfellow, McLaurin area, north of US-90, saying they considered the land purchased by the Jaycees for the project, a lot 80x144 feet, too small for both building and adequate parking.

While endorsing the idea in principal, the supervisors at that time asked reconsideration be given to the location.

On Monday, the Jaycees explained that the site was the fourth or fifth they had tried to obtain within available funds but that everywhere they went it was the same story, "Yes, we are in favor of a youth center but don't build it anywhere near here."

The supervisors again stated they were in favor of youth activities, pointing to the new ball parks being constructed throughout the county to provide for healthy, outdoor recreation.

Supervisors suggested the Jaycees contact the fair association as to the feasibility of their obtaining a section of land to the rear of the old airport. This site, they felt, would offer sufficient space to permit construction, provide for parking, and be away from immediate neighbors.

The fair association, later that day, meeting in a building whose glass door panes had been shattered by vandals, and who were facing the expense of repairing all fair-ground booths due to their all having been broken into and sustaining varying degrees of damage, were less than enthusiastic towards having the youth center established in their midst.

Their principal concern however lay in the fact that the lands were leased to them for a period of 25 years for a specific purpose, that of promoting certain types of activities, including the county fair, rodeos of various types, horse shows, the farmer's market, and the like.

They doubted their aims, and those of the youth center would be compatible, to the detriment of one, the other, or both.

A committee was formed, consisting of L.J. Breaux, Pat Murphy, and Mrs. Elda Duke, to meet with both the county attorney and the Jaycees to investigate the legality of such a sublease arrangement.

The fly in the ointment as far as the Jaycees are concerned however is that the fair group agreed that in the event sub-leasing is legal then initial opportunity must be given to groups related to their ends, such as riding clubs, 4-H groups, Future Farmers of America (FFA), agricultural organizations and so forth. These entities have been turned away over the years due to the supposedly exclusive nature of the lease.

"We are not in favor of giving away five acres here and ten there until we have none left."

"The facilities of the fair association are expanding and as we continue in this expansion we will ultimately need all the land we now have under lease."

"Should it in the meantime prove that we are able to sub-lease part of our holding, then it is only fair we first offer the land to those groups who have been denied in the past," President Breaux said.

Breaux said such leases could be of a temporary nature and involve acreage for horse and rider training, events not requiring massive structures, and ones that could be limited to small, easily dismantled buildings, such as stables.

Kiln W &amp; FPD.

miles of distribution lines to serve 350 subscribers have been approved by the FmHA.

Also approved is a $40,000 loan from FmHA for a new fire truck.

The fire truck loan, which is not dependent on district membership, will be financed through a two mill levy approved by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors some two years ago.

The two mills have been levied in the same 10,500 acres which comprise the KF&WPD.

Bids on construction of the truck will be opened at 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 22, in the office of John D. Rutherford Jr., Hancock County Chancery Court clerk.

Wyatt said site of the proposed district well and water tank will be at the new Kiln fire station on property already owned by the district.

Wyatt said many misconceptions still must be overcome - such as the belief by some that the district's water will contain chlorine and other additives.

He noted the district's source of water will be just as pure as that now being obtained from individual wells at each house.

Boundaries of the district include Cuevas Junction on the north, Interstate 10 on the south, a line through Jourdan River Oaks on the west, and Rotten Bayou on the east.

Suit payment...

1969. Hurricane Camille destroyed the pier later the same year.

Before Judge Cox are motions by Warner's attorneys to dismiss the city's petition for adjustment of debts for failing to comply with provisions of Chapter 9 (of the Federal Bankruptcy Act), not filing a timely list of its creditors, and failing to obtain the approval of the city council or the state before filing the petition.

The petition in question, also before the court, asked for relief from the "unfair, unjust, and unconscionable judgment," in addition to the payment proposal.

A certified public accountant from Pascagoula, Jerry Mallett, allegedly testified that according to the city's audit report as of Sept. 30, 1977, Bay St. Louis has $495,000 in surplus funds which could be used to pay the debt.

This sum, Mallett reportedly disclosed, consists of $119,000 in street improvement bond funds; $171,000 in federal revenue sharing funds; $108,000 in the city-owned utility system operating funds; and $97,000 in the utility system bond covenant fund.

"There is $495,000 the city had at Sept. 30, exclusive of bond funds (for) paying principal and interest."

"The total city bonded indebtedness is $1,232,372 at Sept. 30. The total general obligation indebtedness is $140,563 representing approximately one percent of the total assessed valuation of the city."

"The city could issue $1,176,177 in bonds without reaching the 15 percent limitation set out by state law."

"The city has a very low general obligation bond indebtedness at this time and that's the most favorable situation to be in to issue bonds," it was reported Mallett said.

According to state law, the city can not be indebted for more than 15 percent of its assessed valuation, but the limitation does not apply where money is to be raised for the payment of indebtedness and interest, according to Warner attorney John Hunter.

Special city counsel George Morse, said that state law spells out 14 categories for which a municipality can issue bonds and payment of the judgement would not "remotely" fall within any category.

Mallett said his figures were taken from the city's audit report of Sept. 30, 1977.

It was reported that Morse asked Mallett... "a levy in excess of 32 mills would be necessary...wouldn't it?" To which Mallett allegedly responded "Yes."

Judge Cox called on attorneys for both sides to "give me some authority to read..." backing each sides contentions as to the law in such a case.

Essay Contest

An essay writing contest for students in grades seven through 12 in the Bay St. Louis public schools is being sponsored by the Bay St. Louis Federation of Teachers.

Contestants will compete in two divisions: a junior division (grades 7 - 9), and a senior division (grades 10 - 12).

First place prize in each division will be a $50 U.S. Savings Bond; second place a $25 Savings Bond.

Local winners also winning at the district level, will receive an additional $50 bond. If they win at the state level, they will receive a $100 bond.

Junior divisions will write on the subject, "Why do I Need a Good Education?" This essay is not to exceed 300 words.

For the senior division the assigned topic is "What Are the Qualities of a Good Teacher?" Essays in this division are not to exceed 500 words.

Essays must be submitted to Philip Brandon or Gibson Carter, guidance counselors at the Bay Junior High and Bay Senior High, respectively by 3:30 p.m., March 29 to be eligible for consideration.

Contest rules are designed to conceal author identity until after the winners have been selected.

Judges for the contest are Ellis Cuevas, publisher, the Sea Coast Echo; Miss Mary Perkins, publisher, Coast Buyers Guide and Mrs. Carrie Smith, journalism teacher at Bay Senior High.

Interested students should pick up copies of the rules for the contest from their guidance counselor.

Mississippi Public Service Commission, was back in the county, on a personal, tie by tie, inspection of the line.

Reeves was last in Hancock on a track inspection following the second of two major derailments within the City of Bay St. Louis in 1976.

In other, unrelated business, supervisors:

-Endorsed a resolution asking the Gulf Regional Planning Commission apply for federal funds to renovate the county jail;

-Agreed to readvertise for bids at the Bayou Caddy Marina following its Port and Harbor Commission having only received one submission, and this for only half as much as they were presently receiving;

-Authorized the advertising for bids to feed the prisoners. This service is currently being undertaken by Turnkey J. S. Page, at $1 per head, per meal, on an emergency basis, following the person holding the contract having quit;

-Agreed on the sheriff hiring Ronnie Cuevas of Pearlington as a deputy at $800 per month, replacing Mac Coward, who has joined the Bay PD and an investigator.

-Denied variances to Jackson M. Wyatt, and Gary Ponthieux, concerning improvements under their homes in violation of the Flood Plain Ordinance and the County Planning Commission;

-Approved outstanding payments for Alabama Waterproofing Co., on the Kiln-DeLisle Road;

-Accepted a list of mobile home owners in the county for the month of February;

-Approved payment of $2926 for a new safe in the chancery clerk's office;

-Agreed to investigate the necessity of purchasing additional automobiles for the sheriff's department to replace those suffering from the ravages of time and use.

Reynolds said when the board recommends the election, "We have people to form citizen committees to go from house to house and explain the merits of the proposal."

Superintendent of Schools Terry Randolph said county voters are going to be faced with a school bond issue soon whether or not it's for a new high school.

"We are soon going to be forced to have a bond issue for more classrooms," the superintendent said.

"Regardless, this county has a bond issue to face," Randolph emphasized.

Cuevas said all members of the board are in favor of a new high school, as well as the superintendent and the county's Board of Supervisors.

"The Supervisors will have to call a bond issue election, we (the school board) can only recommend it," the former board president noted.

Current Board President Woodrow Ladner told the Pearlington delegation the feasibility study will answer many questions about a proposed high school and bond issue election "which will need answering anyway if we are going to have any hope of passing this thing."

"It's going to take more than just school board opinion to convince the people in the north end of this county we need another high school," Cuevas pointed out.

Also at this week's meeting, Principal James O'Hara of Hancock North Central Elementary School told board members the Parent Teacher Association from the school is seeking board permission to air condition the facility's classrooms.

The principal said the association now has some $4,000 in its treasury dedicated to wiring the school to handle air conditioning units.

Board President Ladner referred the matter to a board committee on heating problems after Board Attorney Joseph Gex raised the question of board liability for school wiring.

Gex noted the board could accept the money from the association and then advertise for bids from licensed electricians.

O'Hara said the association is prepared to raise some $20,000 estimated to be the cost of equipment to air condition all of the school's classrooms.

Under the association's proposal, the board would assume an estimated additional $3,000 per year in utility bills.

Waveland...

Bell of Mobile, L&N division superintendent; the U.S. Department of Transportation's Federal Railroad Administration; and Congressman Trent Lott of Mississippi.

Longo, in addition, is expected to join with Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis in a 3 p.m. meeting today with Ernest Reeves, southern district railroad inspector for the Mississippi Public Service Commission at the Bay City Hall.

L&N officials will also attend the Thursday afternoon meeting to discuss condition of the company's tracks through Hancock County.

Inspector Robert Tartavouille of the Waveland police department presented a cost breakdown of city participation in state and federal law enforcement assistance programs.

The council authorized the department to proceed with applications for matching funds under the programs. The state assistance, through the Governor's Highway Safety Program, will consist of 50 percent matching funds for purchase of a patrol car fully equipped for police traffic work, including radar gun.

Tartavouille said fully-equipped patrol cars now cost some $9,000.

Under the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration program, Tartavouille said, the city would pay five percent of the cost of another fully-equipped patrol car and the salary of an additional officer to man the car.

These first-year costs to the city would come to $734, the officer said, with second year costs amounting to some $2,376.

Guidelines of the federal program stipulate the city must retain the new traffic officer for a third year at its own expense, Tartavouille said.

The inspector told council members total cost to the city of both programs would be $7,747, with benefits including two patrol cars and services of the traffic officer for two years.

COMMANDER OF USSC AUXILIARY FLOTILLA 33, Guy Butkin of Bay St. Louis, left, receives Annelle Phillips Membership Training Trophy from Division III Captain Annelle Phillips at Division awards ceremony recently at Keeler Field Officers Club. Award was for Division's best overall Membership Training program in Division III, which extends from Mobile, Ala., to Bay St. Louis, and includes Jackson, Mississippi. Also received the Silver Star Award for reaching 1000 goals in operations, public education, membership training and growth. Commander Butkin also received his Auxiliary Officers pin from USSC for completing all seven Auxiliary Councils. On national level, auxiliary was credited with raising $100,000 for the USSC and property with value in excess of $100,000. (Photo by Flotilla 33)

Bullets lodged at top in Men's City League

Robert Smith netted 46 points to push the Mavericks over the one hundred mark as they defeated the Warriors, 101-97, Tuesday in Men's League action at Valena C. Jones Gym.

In other league action, second ranked People's Choice downed the Rollers, 99-81, Tuesday. The Bullets dropped the War Hawks, 88-76, Thursday.

Joe Tate backed up Smith's 46 points with 17 of his own to pace the Mavericks, while Jimmy Lawton racked up 30 for the Warriors. Blue-shirts Alvin Smith and Wilfred Whavers contributed 18 each.

Russell Fairconure set the speed for the People's Choice with 32 points, followed by Luke Traylor with 26, and Larry Chariot, with 21. Melvin Lawton was high scorer for the Rollers with 25, helped by 20 from Fabian Collins and 18 from Elmo Jacobs.

In Thursday's game, Al Walker was the game high scorer with 25 points for the Bullets, while team-mate Jack Lewis netted 16. The War Hawks gathered in 22 points from Robert Weavers, 18 from Eric Lymuel, and 14 from Sterling Price.

The Bullets still hold first place at 6-2, but the People's Choice are right behind them, at 5-3. The Rollers and Mavericks are neck and neck in third with 4-4 records, while the Warriors hold fourth with 3-5. The War Hawks trail at 2-6.

The Bullets' big man Jack Lewis leads the League in scoring, averaging 32.2 points per game. Maverick Robert Smith is moving up on the leader with 31.2 average.

Willie Thomas of the Warriors holds third rank at 27.1, while People's Choice teammates Russell Fairconure and Luke Traylor are settled into fourth and fifth places with 25 and 22.2 averages. Al Walker of the Bullets is tapped sixth at 22.1.

The War Hawks fight it out with the People's Choice at 7 p.m. Thursday followed by the Bullets-Mavericks contest at 9 p.m. in Valena C. Jones Gym.

Ten state records set in annual power lift meet

By SHARON WALLS

Ten Mississippi state records were set during the tenth annual State Power Meet on Saturday in the Student Union Hall of St. Stanislaus. Thirty-nine power lifters from Florida, Louisiana and Mississippi took part in the Southern AAU event.

World champion Doc Rhodes, limiting his participation to the squat and bench press because of injured ribs, set a 385 pound bench press record for the state, lifting in the 181 lb. class.

National champion Leroy Mabie from Gulfport, in the 132 lb. division, set three state records with a 400 pound squat, a 270 pound bench press and a 510 pound dead lift.

Larry Plumlee and Karl Francis, lifting for the Mississippi Iron Men club, set three records each. In the 242 lb. class, Plumlee squatted 670 pounds, benched 470 pounds, and dead lifted 680 pounds. Super heavy weight Francis set records with a 650 pound squat, a 455 pound bench press and a 650 pound dead lift. Both men attempted to break their newly set totals by trying 700 pound dead lifts.

The St. Stanislaus Weightlifting Club placed first in the light-weight division ranging from 123 to 165 pounds. First place honors in the heavy-weight classes from 181 pounds up was taken by the Mississippi Iron Men who were also over-all winners.

In the 123 lb. class, Bill Kergosien of St. Stanislaus took first place with 310 pounds in the squat, 205 in the bench press and 365 in the dead lift for 880 total. Mike Blaine, a Bay St. Louis native lifting for the New Orleans YMCA, placed second with an 840 pound total. Independent Mike Dobbins came in third. Mabie, competing as an independent, placed way ahead in the 132 lb. division with his record-setting lifts totaling 1180 pounds. Steve Truetel, representing SSC, took second place with a 930 pound total, while Paul Truetel, also of Stanislaus, netted third with 805.

Independents Julius Smith, Freeman King, and Thomas Stillman won the top three slots in the 148 class with 1090, 1060, and 1035 pound tallies. Pensacola YMCA lifter Mike Mortenson won first place in the 165 pound class with 1195 followed by Mississippi Iron Man Paul D'Angelo at 1150 and Pensacola's Larry Tilley at 1075.

A unique body-building exhibition entertained the audience while the judges tallied the scores for the lightweight division. Max Rappel, a 31 year old telephone technician from New Orleans; Don Evans, a biology teacher at S.S.C.; and John Jordan, a 23 year old physical education teacher at the University of Southern Mississippi, performed a series of poses which demonstrated muscle form and control.

Raymond Kobetz broke a Louisiana state record with a 630 pound dead lift in the 181 pound class, contributing to his first place 1400 pound tally. Mike Smith and Roger Quinn of the Mississippi Iron Men captured second and third place at 1380 and 1340.

St. Stanislaus Weightlifter Paul Bertucci won second place in the 220 lb. division, racking up 1165 pounds, behind first place winner Hal Holston at 1370. Robert Smith of Mississippi State University placed third despite an injured knee.

Plumlee won the 242 lb. class with no contest. He totaled 1800 pounds and set state records in all three events. Mississippi Iron Men club-mate Francis took the super-heavy weight division with a 1755 pound net. Randy Wilson of the New Orleans YMCA placed second with 1535 followed by Dr. Conrad Cotter from Pensacola at 1435.

Best lifter honors went to Leroy Mabie in the light weight set and to Larry Plumlee in the heavy weight.

Once again the IRS is boasting about how simple they've made it to prepare your taxes.

One look will tell you it's as simple as splitting an atom with a hammer and chisel.

Everyone knows tax forms are complicated, confusing, confounding and downright difficult to fill out. But every year some die-hards insist they can save a few bucks by doing their own taxes—a practice that can backfire at great expense.

You don't have to go through the aggravation
of doing your own taxes.
(You do have to go through the aggravation
of paying them, however).

Let our tax-trained bankers at Hancock Bank
prepare your taxes for you.
We know the regulations;
all the ins and outs of tax preparation.

Our expertise won't only save you a lot of time and effort. Quite possibly it could save you a little money.

This service is for personal tax preparation
only. For business taxes, we advise you to consult with your accountant.

For an appointment at any of the locations listed below,
call 896-2638. Of course, all information is handled in the strictest confidence.

This year, make preparing your taxes simple.

Let us do them for you.

HCBC collects six state title wins

The Hancock County Boxing Club brought home six state championships out of seven contests in the Mississippi State Golden Gloves March 2-4, in Cleveland.

In the 70 lb. division, little Bruce Robinson took the title. Philip Harleaux climbed into the ring for three rounds of glove-to-glove action to claim the victory in the 90 lb. class. Darrell Robinson out-boxed his opponent for the 95 lb. set win.

In the 105 lb. open division, Joe Pavolini won the match and earned a berth for his particular weight class in the Mid-South Golden Gloves contest in Jackson, Tennessee.

Mike Stringer, in the 118 lb. class, fought a tough bout in the finals but had to leave the championship to a previous Golden Gloves champ.

The winners were presented trophies and jackets for the championships.

Rock-a-chaws split two in weekend play

A wild pitch and double steal in the bottom of the sixth inning broke a stalemate for St. Stanislaus's second loss of the season, 4-2, against McGill-Toolen in Mobile, Ala., Saturday, but the Rocks recouped the black mark with an 8-0 shut-out against Notre Dame in Biloxi, Sunday.

Starting pitcher Kerry Geroux went four innings, giving up two runs on a single by Jim Franco in the fourth inning. Kerry Corr took over for one and two-thirds periods, and was on the mound when two McGill runners tapped home on a wild pitch in the last of the sixth. Scott Cox finished the game for the Rocks.

The Rocks opened scoring in the first inning with an RBI on Corr's single and got their second run in the fourth. Corr and Gary Sotak got two hits each, while Andrew Haas, Perre Cabell netted singles and Greg Hammer hit a double.

John Duffy pitched all six innings for McGill, striking out six and walking one.

The Rock-a-chaws came back strong against Notre Dame the following day, with Scott Cox striking out eleven and giving up only four hits.

Cox also got two hits and two RBIs, while Todd Edwards, Kelly Geroux, Hammer, and Andrew Haas each took one RBI. Edwards, Freddy Keel, and Hammer are credited with one hit apiece.

The Rock-a-chaws are now 6-2 in the season.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLINIC

Some 200 industrial arts teachers from throughout Mississippi and neighboring states are expected to attend the 17th annual Industrial Arts Clinic Thursday and Friday, March 9 and 10, at Mississippi State University. The clinic will include an American Industrial Arts Association competition for junior and senior high industrial arts students on building model cars to metric standards, as well as passing tests on the metric system. Registration is set for 8:30 a.m. Thursday, and the meet will close at noon Friday. Sponsors include MSU Industrial and Occupational Education Department, State Division of Vocational-Technical Education, and Industrial Education Association.

Super Chocolatey Upside-Down Cake

One of America's favorite "fun" desserts is pretty, sticky upside-down cake. This chocolate version topped-or bottomed-with fruit and nuts is rich, moist and truly melts in the mouth. It takes just a few minutes to combine ingredients following these simple directions. Bake in a Bundt pan, invert, and serve while still warm. Because this sure-to-be-popular treat is made with cocoa, the flavor is more concentrated—it tastes more chocolatey. Cocoa is also economical, and more convenient to use than baking chocolate since you measure and mix right from the can—there's no melting. Try it!

SUPER CHOCOLATEY UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE

3 tablespoons butter, melted
1 cup light brown sugar, packed
2 tablespoons light corn syrup
1 can (29 ounces) sliced peaches, well drained
Maraschino cherries, halved
1/2 cup chopped nuts (optional)
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 1/4 cups sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/4 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
1/3 cup Hershey's Cocoa
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup buttermilk or sour milk

Combine 3 tablespoons butter, brown sugar and corn syrup in bottom of a 12-cup Bundt pan or 10-inch tube pan. Do not use a removable-bottom tube pan. Arrange sliced peaches and cherries. Sprinkle with nuts. Cream 1/2 cup butter and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition, add vanilla. Combine flour, cocoa, baking soda and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk. Pour batter evenly over fruit and nuts in pan. Bake at 350° for 40 to 45 minutes for Bundt pan; 50 to 55 minutes for tube pan. Immediately invert onto serving platter. Leave pan over cake a few minutes. Serve warm with sweetened whipped cream if desired.

*To Sour Milk: 1/2 cup 2% milk plus 1/2 cup vinegar plus milk to equal 2/3 cup.

Buccaneer Crew Notes

by DIDDY QUINLAN

EASTER PREPARATIONS

Out at Buccaneer we're beginning to prepare for Easter. Usually in our part of the country Easter signals the start of the camping season. Activities planned for Easter weekend include the traditional Easter Egg Hunt, both a Protestant and Catholic service; a bonfire complete with an astronomy lesson; and a craft session during which we will learn how to make sundials. Another special event scheduled for Good Friday night is an Elvis Presley movie entitled King Creole. The is a very popular movie filmed in New Orleans. Everyone is invited to participate in these activities and we hope to see many local residents as well as campers use our facilities.

JUNIOR RANGERS

On an early note I'd like to remind all scout leaders - both boys and girls - about our Junior Park Ranger Program. This is an excellent opportunity for boys and girls -15 to participate in projects designed to teach them about the environment. A membership card is issued when an individual is enrolled; a certificate and merit patch are awarded when projects are completed. This program offers involvement not just to scouts but to all boys and girls who may be interested.

Pass Gardeners plan flower show, April 13

By MARYON SPELLMAN
Recording Secretary

The Pass Christian Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. William Harrison March 2.

The president, Mrs. R. Parnell McKay, welcomed members and their guests before calling upon Miss Adele Bielenberg for the invocation.

Following the reading and acceptance of routine reports, the president called for a Nominating Committee report.

Its chairman, Mrs. Mary Brandt, presented the recommended slate of officers for the new fiscal year beginning Sept. 1.

This slate will be voted upon at the April meeting. The installation of the new officers will be at the May 4 luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. A. H. Morgan.

The president announced she and Mrs. Marvin Law had attended the Gulf Coast Council meeting Feb. 3, at which several ideas and suggestions were developed for consideration by the membership.

Mrs. F. E. Wamsangs, chairman, Flower Show, April 13, at the Pass Christian Yacht Club from 2 to 5 p.m., discussed show details at some length as well as distributing schedules and descriptions of the various events.

General co-chairmen are Mrs. C. D. Darrell and Mrs. A. M. Keel. Staging chairman, Mrs. R. Happ, will be assisted by co-chairman, Mrs. L. Allen, Mrs. D. DeMetz, Mrs. R. DeMetz, Mrs. R. Daeumler, Mrs. T. Moore, and Mrs. W. Harrison.

Entries chairman, Mrs. G. Brandt, will be assisted by Mrs. H. Virden. Mrs. K. Z. Anthony and Mrs. R. Rafferty will co-chairmen the classification of entries.

Mrs. E. Gamard and Mrs. C. D. Taylor will co-chair artistic design. Mrs. D. D. DENIS, chairman of horticulture, will be assisted by Mrs. J. E. Audley, Mrs. J. Hughes, and Mrs. Q. B. A.

Trepagnier. Hospitality will be co-chaired by Mrs. D. Sandlin and Mrs. R. P. McKay. Awards will be co-chaired Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs. J. McQueen. Mrs. C. Fitzwilson and Miss Adele Bielenberg will serve as clerks. Registration will be handled by Mrs. E. Dinkelspiel, Mrs. D. G. Taylor and Mrs. C. Gale. Publicity will clear through Mrs. V. Giani and Mrs. C. Spillman. Educational wild flowers and birds will be chaired by Mrs. D. Sandlin, assisted by Miss Jane Northrop and Mrs. H. L. Hammett. Educational books will be in the care of Misses Clare and Marjorie Knost. Dismantling will be handled by Mrs. H. Wittmann and Mrs. W. Wood, with the requested assistance of all club members.

Mrs. Robert Campbell reported that much had been done on the Club's HANDS project, and all work would be completed by the April meeting.

Mrs. Marvin Law, chairman, Pass Christian Pilgrimage, stated that plans are being carried out as scheduled, and luncheon will be served at the Pass Christian Yacht Club from 12 until 2 p.m. Prepaid reservations of $4 should be sent to Mrs. John Lang, 7 Nelson Lane, Pass Christian, by March 30.

Mrs. Rosamond Wallace gave a most helpful talk on do's and don'ts in encouraging and caring for birds. For lovers of bird feeders and houses her simple suggestions can very profitably be borne in mind.

The meeting adjourned for the members to select plants brought by other members to be sold, with the proceeds going to the club treasury.

The lovely tea table prepared by the hostesses for the day was thoroughly enjoyed.

GUTTED BY FIRE - Interior damage was heavy on Friday to the residence of the Marvin Krankey's, 106 Francisco Court, Spanish Acres. The family lost everything and the Spanish Acres Civic Association has established a "Marvin Krankey Fund" at Hancock Bank, US-90, Bay St. Louis. (Staff photo - Ellis Cuevas)

Residence damaged by fire

The home of the Marvin Krankey's, 106 Francisco Court, Spanish Acres, was gutted by fire on Friday.

The Spanish Acres Civic Association (SACA) has established a "Marvin Krankey Fund," at Hancock Bank, US 90, Bay St. Louis.

A benefit bake sale will be held today at Bay St. Louis Shopping Center, sponsored by the ladies of SACA.

Bay St. Louis Fire Department received a call at 11:45 a.m. Friday. Cause of the blaze is under investigation by the State fire marshal.

The Krankey's lost everything in the fire, they have two young daughters and an infant son. Anyone wanting to lend assistance, call Robert Marks, president SACA, 467-9400.

Zero bracket explained for income tax

The Internal Revenue Service's tax information center, Jackson, has determined that one of the most often asked question is, "What does the term 'Zero Bracket Amount' mean?"

IRS District Director William Daniel gives this explanation: "Zero Bracket Amount or ZBA, is a term used to label a certain portion of your reportable income which is not taxed. It replaces the old 'standard' deduction, results in a tax cut for most people, and eliminates some arithmetic."

Daniel said that in years past to use the standard deduction the taxpayer had to do some percentage math, then make comparisons to determine which figure he should use, the percentage figure, the maximum standard deduction, or the low income allowance.

ZBA eliminates this variable standard deduction and replaces it with a flat amount allowable based on your filing status.

The amounts are $2200 for a single person or an unmarried head of household; $3200 for a married couple filing jointly or a qualifying widow, and $1600 for a married person filing separately.

"ZBA is more generous than the old method," said Daniel, "and the necessity for itemizing deductions has been eliminated for about six million taxpayers nationally."

"So if you still want to think of Zero Bracket Amount as the standard deduction, go ahead," says Daniel. "But,

ZBA is better and simpler.

"If you've been trying to figure out how to claim your standard deduction, relax; it has been done for you."

"When you get the tax figure from the tax table it's the real thing, the final figure, giving you credit for ZBA, your personal exemptions, and general tax 'credit,' Daniel concluded.

Homestead exemption deadline is April 1

Edward D. Murtagh, Jr. assessor-tax collector, Hancock County, reminds residents, April first is the deadline to file for homestead exemption.

Applications not on file on or before April first of the current year, may not be accepted by the assessor, may not be allowed by the Board of Supervisors, and may not be considered by the commission, according to law.

Murtagh says hundreds of residents have failed to file with only 24 days left. You must bring all motor vehicle tag numbers and social security number to file in the assessors office of the county courthouse, Bay St. Louis

TAX EVASION ATTEMPT
The United States District Court in Biloxi has fined Karsen H. Jensen of Rankin County $10,000 plus one year probation after he pleaded guilty to one count of attempted income tax evasion. The court suspended a two-year jail sentence. Two other counts were dismissed.

STAR students, teachers named by SSC, Pass High

The Mississippi Economic Council has announced the selection of STAR students and teachers for two area schools, St. Stanislaus, and Pass Christian High School. STAR students are chosen on the basis of academic excellence. Scholastic averages, and scores on the American College Test are considered in designation of a school's STAR student.

Each chosen student is asked to designate a STAR teacher, a teacher who has made the greatest contribution to his or her scholastic achievement.

William Kergosien, senior, has been selected for honors at SSC, and Lisa Lehrer Saper, also a senior, was the honoree at Pass Christian High School.

Brother Noel was chosen by Kergosien as the teacher contributing most to his scholastic achievement, while for Miss Saper, the selection was Mrs. Linda Keelor Jordan.

Kergosien is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kergosien of Bay St. Louis. He is an Alpha roll student and a member of the President's Honor Roll. He is presently serving as president of the National Honor Society and is a member of the yearbook staff.

He was named the school's scholar-athlete and was chosen as an All-Conference running back in the Pascagoula River Conference this past season. The STAR student represented his school at the Presidential Classroom

Program in Washington, D.C. this year.

Lisa Saper, 17, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.F. Ingargiola of Pass Christian, intends to study political science at Vanderbilt University following her being graduated from high school.

A participant in the Presidential Classroom for Young Americans, she is listed in Who's Who in American High Schools, is a member of the Society of Distinguished American High School Students, Beta Club, Commended Scholars List, co-editor of the school annual, and is active in the Gulf Coast Talented Student Project.

In her junior year, her citations included: excellent rating at state solo and ensemble competition (band), president of home room, Beta Club, student council, history award, French II award, yearbook, VFW Voice of Democracy winner, prom committee, student representative to school board.

Brother Noel has been at St. Stanislaus for 21 years where he teaches religion and mathematics. He is moderator of the St. Stanislaus Aviation Club, is in charge of Camp St. Stanislaus, and academic fun camp for boys during the summer months at St. Stanislaus.

Mrs. Jordan lives in Gulfport and teaches both French and English at Pass Christian High School.

She earned degrees from the University of Oregon, BA in English and a Masters in French, and has taught for the last six years.

Notes from Pearlington

By ONA MAE MCARTHUR

The Pearlington Booster Club is sponsoring a Gong Show March 11 at the Charles B. Murphy Gym. Everyone is invited. Admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Pre-schoolers admitted free.

The James Foxworth family has a new member, Jason Lamar, born Monday, Feb. 20, weighing seven pounds four ounces. Grandparents are Mrs. Ida Booth of Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Foxworth of Chalmette.

Happy birthday wishes go to Lana Watkins, Shiela Furry, Gina Reynolds, Mrs. Ora Holden, and Rubinia Rasbury.

The W.M.U. Ladies of First Southern Baptist observed this past week as Week of Prayer for Home Mission with prayer program each day.

Get well to Mrs. Bessie McArthur, and Namoni Young.

Mrs. May Lusich and Ona Mae were visitors in Hickory, La., in the home of Mrs. Minnie Dawsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bealle of Slidell were visitors to Mrs. May Lusich.

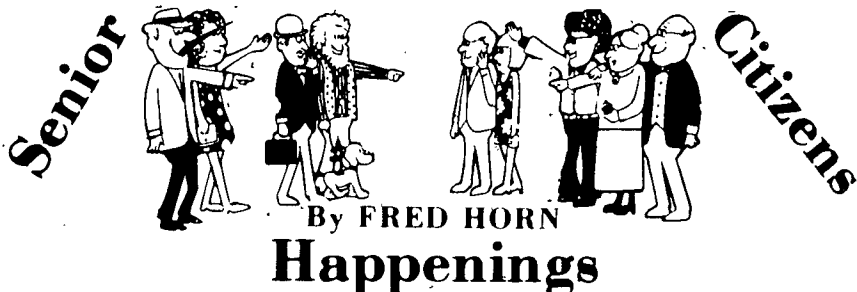

Stephanie and Jeremiah Frazier were visitors for the past month in Forth Smith, Ark., visiting their grandparents.

The Senior Citizens of Pearlington will stage their annual Easter party, 12 noon, March 15, at the Community Center. Prizes will be awarded for the funniest bonnet and the best decorated egg.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, Jr., of Waveland, announce the birth of their second child and second son, Jason Patrick, March 1 at Baptist Hospital, New Orleans. He weighed nine pounds, four ounces.

Mrs. Johnson is the former Gay Gegenheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Gegenheimer of Algiers, La. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Waveland, are the paternal grandparents; and Mrs. Dolores Ladner, also of Waveland, is the paternal great-grandmother.

Happenings

RECREATION

The Senior Citizens Center invites all Seniors to participate in the Social Hour on Monday, March 13th, at 1:30 p.m. Plan to attend this event, there will be plenty of surprises in store for all. Refreshments consisting of home-made cake and coffee will be served.

The Silver Creek School for the Developmentally Delayed Children were entertained by Harwood Phaup, scoutmaster, Silver Creek Boy Scouts, assisted by Ward Rawhouser, and Raymond Williams. The three men presented entertainment in the form of games, namely horse-shoes, checkers, and bean-bag. The children enjoyed the games to the extent that it will become a weekly event.

Congratulations, Harwood, Ward, and Raymond, for your participation in the program. All 3 gentlemen are RSVP Volunteers.

SPRING PICNIC

A gentle reminder to all Senior Citizens who plan to attend the Spring Picnic, and Easter-egg Hunt at the Buccaneer State Park, on Friday, March 17th, from 11 a.m. and on throughout the day. - March 17th, Introduction "What is Sculpture (Clay);"
- March 24th "Modeling Sculpture;"
- March 31 - Complete;
- April 7th - Begin plaster work;
- April 14th - Cast plaster, and vermiculite, 2nd Sculpture and carve.
- April 21st - complete carving and finish.

We will have a small exhibit at the Library of sculpture pieces. Materials will be furnished. Sign up at the Recreation Department. Any Senior Citizen interested in attending this class, please call Jim Hoda or Fred Horn 467-9292. Ms. Charle Arceneaux, instructor for the water color, and sketching class, informs me that she will temporarily discontinue the drawing class. Ms. Arceneaux will be the instructor for the new Sculpture Class.

PEARLINGTON

The Senior Citizens Club, Easter Party will take place on Wednesday March 15th at 12 noon, at the Community Center. Refreshments consisting of ham, and chicken salad sandwiches, potato salad, coffee, and cold drinks will be served. Flip Johnson, and his country and western band will be there to entertain everyone. An open invitation has been extended to all county officials.

WAVELAND

The Senior Citizens Club will hold their meeting Monday, March 13th, at 10 a.m. at the Waveland Civic Center. There will be a kitchen shower at this meeting, all members please bring a pan, dish, or anything from your kitchen, that you do not need, preferably large pans. All members please attend this meeting as many important issues will be discussed.

ILLNESS

Sorry to hear that O. J. Lovett, senior aide, at our Center has been hospitalized, along with Elma Joubert, RSVP member, who plays the piano at many of our functions, and Lillia Harris. I'm sure that all of our prayers will be with each of you for a speedy recovery, and soon return to the fold with us. We are happy to report our RSVP member, Ida T. Carter, has been released from the hospital, and is recuperating at home.

News from the Church of St. Ann

THOUGHT FOR DAY

A thought from the library of Father Canisius Hayes, pastor St. Ann's parish - "He slept beneath the moon, he basked beneath the sun; he lived a life of going - to - do, and he died with nothing done."

Academic careers are Old Miss campus scene

Academic Career Day, an informal program of career counseling, tours, displays and entertainment, is expected to attract hundreds of high school and junior college students to The University of Mississippi on Friday, March 10.

Career Day, a campus-wide observance, is intended to give college-bound students the opportunity to meet with representatives from the various academic fields at Ole Miss.

The day's events begin with registration at 8 a.m. at the Front Plaza of the Union, followed by a welcome from Chancellor Porter L. Fortune Jr. at Fulton Chapel. Dr. Fortune's address will be followed by career counseling sessions, with representatives of every department available for conferences with students. All academic schools will be open for tours.

In addition, a program for parents, teachers and counselors of prospective students is scheduled for 11 a.m. This session will provide an opportunity to discuss admission deadlines, financial aid, student housing and other topics with University personnel.

A jazz band concert and a hot dog lunch will begin at noon in the Grove. Open houses of academic buildings and dormitories will continue in the afternoon.

Various schools and departments will feature industrial exhibits, scientific demonstrations and departmental presentations for visiting students. Other planned activities include an art show, a University Theatre production of "Mice and Men" and a mock trial staged by the UM Moot Court.

The Ole Miss radio station (WCBH) will broadcast from the Union during Academic Career Day, and the Media Center will provide live television coverage.

Among scheduled afternoon tours are Rowan Oak, home of the Nobel prize-winning author William Faulkner; Phase I of The University of Mississippi Cultural Center, The Teaching Museum, with exhibits that range from Greek and Roman antiquities of modern prints; University Library and Archives, with special collections including Faulkner mementoes; and the Learning Development Center, a learning lab for students who need assistance in various courses.

Career Day concludes at 4 p.m. Throughout the day, an information booth will be open on the plaza in front of the Ole Miss Union, staffed by UM student Ambassadors.

Chamber supports Gulf Park funding

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce voted Tuesday to join with other Chambers along the Coast to support a $4.2 million state appropriation for off-campus degree centers, including Gulf Park College in Long Beach.

The $4.2 million figure, proposed in the original bill, had been cut by the State Budget Commission to $2,266,000. The Hancock Chamber board of directors, according to President Richard L. Thomas, feels that this cut of the $4.2 million figure would greatly hinder the continuing educational efforts at Gulf Park and other degree granting centers throughout the state.

According to the proposal, Gulf Park would have to share whatever the state legislature appropriates with schools at Natchez, Meridian, Tupelo, Vicksburg, and South Haven.

Civilians to be cut

As a result of resource constraints imposed throughout the U.S. Air Force, a reduction in civilian manpower authorizations will occur at Keesler AFB this fiscal year. The impact at Keesler has not been finalized at this time, as Headquarters U.S. Air Force must provide the authority to conduct the reduction in force (RIF) action. A request for that approval has been submitted through Air Force channels.

Air Training Command (STC) officials said that approximately 1,200 civilian spaces are being withdrawn from Keesler and the approximate number of employees to be involuntarily separated should be available by April.

All involuntarily separated employees who desire placement assistance will be registered in a Department of Defense-wide computerized priority placement program. Registrants in this program will be afforded priority placement rights to vacancies arising throughout DOD for which they are qualified and available. All reduction actions will be completed by Sept. 30. In all cases, a 60-day advance notice of separation action will be given to each affected employee.

Sheriff given right bait, nets outboard motor thief

Hancock County Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., and chief deputy Ronnie Peterson, on a tip, secured search warrants, and apprehended a Juvenile Monday and charged him with the alleged theft of an outboard motor and other items, in Bay St. Louis.

The juvenile was also charged with the possession of marijuana which was found during a search of the premises. Items recovered which were taken from the home of Ms. Erma Childress, Pogo Road, Bay St. Louis were two electric drills, a stainless steel thermos jug in leather case, and new Coleman Lantern. The juvenile has been turned over to authorities for court action.
